§ 73-15. License required.
It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation to own, keep or harbor any domestic animals or fowl, except cats and dogs, within the limits of the Borough of Mendham unless a written license therefore is first had and obtained from the Clerk of said Borough of Mendham.

§ 73-16. Application
Any person desiring a license to own, keep or harbor any domestic animals or fowl, except cats and dogs, shall make application to the Clerk of the Borough of Mendham for a license. The issuance of said license shall be based upon the suitability of the premises housing the animals and fowl and subject to the rules and regulations as hereinafter outlined.

§ 73-17. Fee; term of license.
There shall be no fee for such license, and such license shall run for a period of one year from the date of issue.

§ 73-18. Rules and regulations.
The licensee shall comply with the following rules and regulations prior to the issuance of said license and shall continue to comply with the same during the term of the license.

A. Any building housing any domestic animals or fowl, except cats and dogs, shall be at least 25 feet from the side line of any street upon which the lot faces, and such building shall be 20 feet from any existing dwelling or place of habitation by human beings on adjoining properties .

B. The owner or owners shall keep said coop, building and/or yard reasonably clean at all times so as to prevent offensive odors or an accumulation of manure and organic refuse which fosters the breeding of flies.

§ 73-19. Revocation of license.
The Board of Health and The Zoning Officer may revoke all licenses issued hereunder for violation of any of the provisions herein.

§ 73-20. Violations and penalties.
Any person or persons, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this article shall be subject to a fine, upon arraignment and conviction by the court or Judge before whom the complaint is made, of not less than $5 nor more than $500, in the discretion of the court or Judge imposing such fine.
